We have a new “hash central” hotel for our event weekend! The Quality Inn-Coliseum has given us an awesome rate of only $71.99 p/night, and considering most hotels jack the rates to over $150 p/night, our rate is cheap. Our room block is available ONLY until Feb 27 so call 843-554-6485 to reserve yours now. Ask for the “Charleston Happy Heretic” rate. There is a 72-hour cancellation policy, and one night’s deposit is due at time of booking.

Bridge Run rego is separate from RDR/Pub Crawl rego and costs $30 till Feb 1, then $40 till race day – if they don’t sell out.

Go to www.bridgerun.com to rego, see race details, packet pick up info (or how to have it mailed to you) and photos.

7th Anal Happy Heretic H3 RDR & 21st Anal CRBR Pub Crawl Weekend Extravaganza!

March 30, 31 & April 1, 2012

The following weekend agenda is loosely based on actual events that are supposed to happen, but you know how drunk people are – they always have the best of intentions. We're hoping for a great turn out this year at our new Hash Hotel, the Quality Inn-Coliseum! You asked for rockin accommodations in one central location and we heard ya! Your rego fee of $51.50 – ONLY $20 more than last year – now includes ALL transportation to and from the hotel for all Heretic events, enough beer to fill a swimming pool, all meals, a cool t-shirt, and a few more surprises – if we get them all confirmed. We're celebrating our 6th Red Dress Weekend AND our 21st Cooper River Bridge Run Pub Crawl (it's a long story, just roll with it) so come on out and enjoy some Charleston Hashpitality! (What? Savannah's not the only party city in the South, ya know. ;) Got a question? Email By The Hour, Grand Mattress at bythehour2@gmail.com.

Tentative Weekend Schedule – All times & activities will be firmed up soon!

Friday, March 30th

5pm: Rego opens

7pm: Bridge un pre-lube dinner & shenanigans

Later: The hash hotel is across the street from Tanger Outlet Mall and multiple bars (think Buffalo Wild Wings). There could possibly be an impromptu pub crawl or trail tossed, but we'll see...

Saturday, March 31st

530am-ish: Shuttle busses leave the hotel for the Cooper River Bridge RDR start (exact times TBA). We almost always make the papers when gathering at one of 2 beer stops during the r*ce, so dress to impress!

930am-ish: Too hungover to run? Not a problem. This shuttle will take the stragglers to the post-r*ce finish party, Heretics style. Brunch/lunch and alcohol awaits!

1-2pm-ish: Shuttles return to the hash hotel for a much-needed power nap, sex, more beer, etc. Whatever you need to recharge your engines.

530pm-ish: Shuttles depart hash hotel for the pub crawl start!

11-Midnight-ish: Return shuttles back to the hash hotel, where we'll continue to party, pass out, etc. until the ducks look at us funny. Of course, when a tippy cup table is nearby....

Sunday, April 1st

11am: All are welcome at our favorite Heretic church, Shem Creek Bar & Grill for bloodys, mimosahitos, oyster shooters, and the best brunch this side of the Atlantic. You've heard us brag about the Reverend Al before, so hang out just a little longer to wash yourself of sin with confession and a bloody...or 5. (This event is on your own and not included in your rego fee. Sorry. We're not the Rockefeller hash.)
